

Learning Track in Criminal Behavior Management in Schools

The graduate learning track in Criminal Behavior Management in Schools is for the practicing or aspiring school administrator who would like additional training in behavior management in schools related to criminal or deviant juvenile behavior. This 3-course learning track looks at behaviors related to drugs and alcohol, gangs and gang prevention, and the juvenile justice system. This professional development series also counts toward continuing education requirements for educators across the U.S.

Learning Track Requirements (9 semester hours)

Code	Title	Semester Hours
CMRJ504	Drugs, Justice, and Society	3
CMRJ523	Gangs and Gang Prevention	3
CMRJ591	Seminar on Juvenile Justice and Behavior	3
Total Semester Hours		9