

Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies

The Bachelor of Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies offers you a chance to focus on two or more disciplines while helping build communication and critical thinking skills. Academic discipline choices are focused on employment trends for students with an interdisciplinary background: business and management; natural and social sciences, communication and media; and social services. This degree allows you to build and focus upon unique areas of study with fewer constraints than a traditional major. Graduates of this program apply their skills and abilities in communication, business and management, and social service. The interdisciplinary foundation of the program helps to prepare you for diverse employment choices as well as for discipline focused graduate studies.

Note: This program does not qualify for Federal Student Aid

Degree Program Objectives

In addition to the institutional and degree level learning objectives, graduates of this program are expected to achieve these learning outcomes:

- Demonstrate knowledge of and respect for diverse, global cultures and societies
- Communicate and collaborate effectively in personal and professional contexts
- Apply an interdisciplinary perspective to solving problems
- Explain how interdisciplinary knowledge supports success in diverse careers in service and leadership
